URGENT NOTICE ON THE PROGRAMME DURATION EXTENSION

01/05/2017

This is an urgent notice on the extension of the implementation date of the South African Film and Television Production Incentive Programme from 31 March 2017 to 31 March 2018.

The extension is provided for the completion of the incentive review study that is currently underway and to ensure that the recommendations from the incentive study review are implemented accordingly for the new incentive programme anticipated to be launched in the fourth quarter of the financial year 2017/18.

The window for receiving new application will continue as normal and it is open up until 31 March 2018. The payment of claims is conditional on prospective applicants meeting all the South African Film and Television Production Incentive Programme requirements and subject to the availability of funds.
