Background

- Parliament's Portfolio Committee on Trade and Industry met with the South African Farmers Development Association (SAFDA) to hear its concerns regarding not being recognized by the South African Sugar Association (SASA) and the South African Cane Growers' Association (SACGA).
- The Committee acknowledged that this was an urgent matter and that swift action should be taken by the Department of Trade and Industry.

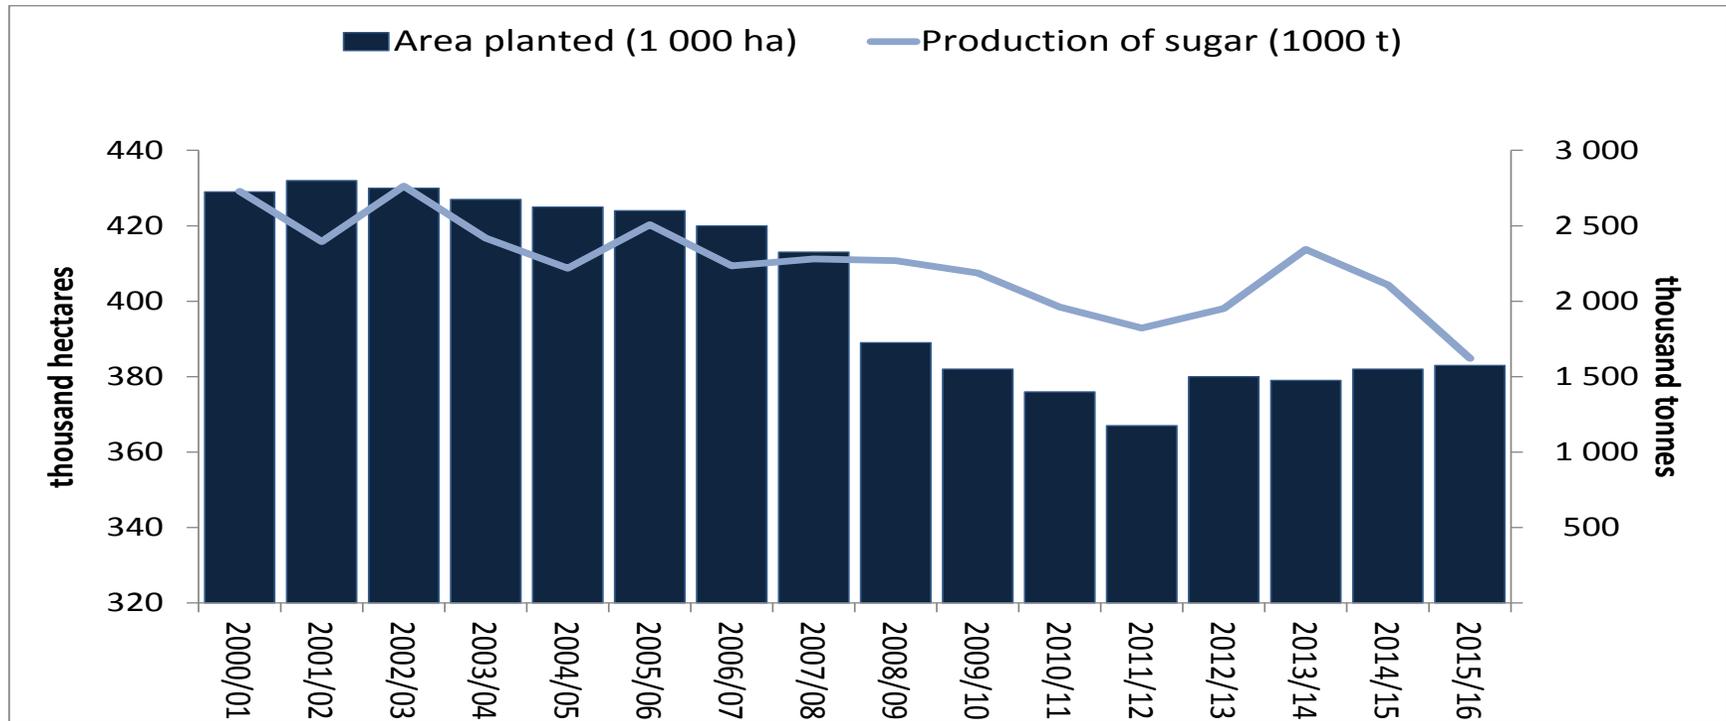

Composition of sugar cane growers

Production Trends

- Sugar cane is mostly produced by large-scale growers.
- Of the 22 500 registered sugarcane growers, approximately only 21 110 are small-scale growers, mainly on “tribal” land.
- The six sugar millers also own some sugar estates, which represent about 7% of sugar cane growers.
- The industry generates approximately 79 000 direct jobs (7 000 of which are employed in milling).
- This represents over 11% of the total agricultural workforce in South Africa, according to the South African Sugar Association (SASA).
- Direct and indirect employment is estimated at 350 000 people.
- An important feature of the industry is the employment in rural areas where there is often little other economic opportunity

Area planted of sugar cane and production of sugar

Small scale sugar cane growers have suffered disproportionately from challenges facing the sugar growing industry in general, including poor rainfall, increased input prices (mainly for fertiliser, labour and fuel), services etc (Bureau for Food and Agricultural Policy, 2014; Dubb, 2014).

Agroprocessing - Value Chain Support

- Aim
 - Stem retrenchments
 - Assist in finding alternate markets for sugar including direct and indirect markets; export support
 - Address competitiveness
 - Trade issues (imports / tariffs)
- Measures
 - Agro processing Support Scheme (APSS)
 - Comprehensive Agricultural Support Programme: Conditional Grant by NT & DAFF support to small growers

Objective of the review of the regulation

- To improve the competitive environment in which the industry operates in a manner that will contribute to the optimal development of the industry and inclusive growth
- Ensuring the long term cost competitiveness of the industry.
- To provide a positive legal position and minimise self regulation by industry.
- Towards transformation of the Sugar Industry.

Sugar Industry Consultation Process

- The Department of Trade & Industry participated in the mediation process that was led by Mr Charlse Nupen from 2-3 December 2017 which resulted in the Draft Agreement of Cooperation, proposed amendments to the sugar industry regulations and a proposed new structure to serve as umbrella body for the sugar cane farmers. This necessitated the amendments to the SASA Constitution and the Sugar Industry Agreement.
 - Outcome: A new agreement was signed by all parties namely South African Farmers Development Association, South African Cane Growers Association and SA Millers Association
- SASA Special Council Meeting was held on the 12 December in KwaShukela, KZN.
 - Outcome: Changes to the SASA Constitution and Sugar Industry Agreement were adopted

Sugar Industry Consultation Process

- SASA Special Delegates meeting held on 5th February 2018 in KwaShukela, KZN.
