CONDUCT DURING THE EXAMINATIONS

1. All examinations are closed book examinations (apart from the two examinations identified hereunder) and students are accordingly not allowed to take any written material or electronic aids into the venues.

   The exceptions are:

   1.1 Group 2(e) (Drafting of Patent Specifications) - students are allowed to bring one or more dictionaries into the examination venue.

   1.2 Group 2(f) (Practical Legal Problems) - students are allowed to bring one dictionary into the examination venue; and will be supplied with copies of the Superior Courts Act, Uniform Rules of Court, Patents Act and Patent Regulations. Please note that there is an extended reading time of 60 minutes before the start of the examination (09:00 – 10:00). Students will not be allowed to leave the examination room during this time. The total duration of this examination is therefore 5 hours.

2. All cell phones and other electronic devices must be switched off.

3. Toilet breaks must be limited to a maximum of 5 minutes each. Candidates may not take anything with them when leaving the examination venue for a toilet break. This includes, but is not limited to examination papers, answer scripts, cell phones and any other electronic devices. No contact with other candidates during toilet breaks is allowed.

4. Apart from the matters mentioned above, Students are expected to conduct themselves with honesty, and any breach of usual examination conduct is unacceptable.
